PENROSE PREDICTS

Things Are Going Well for Him in Pennsylvania.

Senator Boies Penrose, who has been ight roundly lambasted for these many years as a political boss, seems estined to hold onto the reins of ower in Pennsylvania. The other day, after having been beent from Washington most of the me this session, Penrose made his ppearance in the Senate and put in few licks in behalf of the river and arbor bill and against any interfernce with coastwise shipping. It was eacless to become active for coastwise shipping for before his arrival vise shipping for before his arrival oth Congress and the Administration ad concluded not to open up coastise shipping to foreign built shins ad had decided to let this monopoly

August 17, 1914.

The Washington Times, Advertising Manager In reading the Sunday evening paper I noticed the Thrifty Buyers ads., when the door bell rang and there were three to dinner and no desert. I picked up the paper and called up M. 223 and had one-half gallon of the most delicious peach cream and a nice cake from George Amrein's, in less than one hour. That's how the Thrifty Buyers ad, will help lots more out of a tight place. Respectfully,

Classified Adv't. Manager, Washington Times. Dear Sir:

Last Saturday night while motoring on the Potomac river I contracted a severe cold, which developed into malaria. On returning home that night I tried all medicines available, but none were a success. It was enly after reading the Sunday Times ads. and sending for a 35-cent box of Bury's Chill and Malaria Capsules that I secured relief. After taking two of these capsules I began to recover and now I am as healthy as ever with high praise to the George Bury ad. of the Hints to Thrifty Buyers in the Washington Times. Very respectfully.

If Your Ad was in this space it would be seen by the Thrifty Buyers

Where to find a becoming fall hat has been a very pertinent question with me for the past few weeks. After a fruitless search I was almost in despair when I chanced to read McCafferty's ad. in the Hints to Thrifty Buyers of last evening's Sunday Times. This seemed to be just the place I was looking for and I made it my destination for an early shopping tour this morning. After a couple of trials I found the very shape I was looking for—quite the smartest thing I have or trials I found the very shape I was looking for—quite the smartest thing I have seen and I feel well repaid for reading that Times Ad. Yours truly, MARTHA LUTZ. 141 R street northeast, Wash, D. C.
